

This province does not require a certificate for A & B category fittings and is exempt from CRN.